Alissa Tripp Receives Promotion to Division Director

Charlotte, North Carolina; May, 2015 – AccruePartners, a professional Staffing and Executive Search Firm headquartered in Charlotte, NC, is pleased to congratulate Alissa Tripp to Division Director of VMS and Strategic Accounts.

Due to her diligence and success at AccruePartners, we are confident that Alissa will excel in leading the VMS and Strategic Accounts as their Division Director. In this new position, she will oversee the delivery and staffing efforts of her team while recruiting at a full-desk capacity. Alissa graduated from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a focus in Finance and Entrepreneurship. She initially joined AccruePartners in 2011 as a Staffing Manager in the Financial Services Division where she learned the Vendor Management Services (VMS) Staffing processes. Alissa then transitioned to the Accounting and Finance team where she focused her efforts on executive search and temporary placements for positions within the field. Her experience leading professional recruiting efforts in talent placements for these fields has made her a vital member of the AccruePartners team.

“Alissa has shown tremendous growth and leadership by exceeding client expectations while delivering the best available talent. We are proud to promote from within as our organization continues to meet the accelerated demands of our clients on a national level. Congratulations Alissa! We look forward to your success.” states Patty Comer, Principal.
